The work of loading the American ships St. Nicholas and Berlin for Alaska was commenced yesterday morning. The St. Nicholas is at Kinney's cannery and the Berlin at the wharf of the A. & C. railroad.

John H. Koch, for many years a resident of Astoria, died Sunday morning at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. His body will be cremated this afternoon and his ashes interred in Seilwood cemetery.

The repairs to the Chinook have been completed by the Risdon Iron Works of San Francisco and she is ready for service. It is not known what she will do during the suspension of dredging on the bar.

In the probate court yesterday Chas. Sivenius was appointed guardian of the estate of Anna Sivenius, an insane person. D. Malagamb, Hans Nyman and Frank Merurio were appointed appraisers of the estate of Christ Nelson, deceased.

A dispatch in the Oregonian says the transport Bufford was delayed on her way down the river by fogs. A seltzer sour is good for that. It sobers a man up quick, especially when he imagines he sees a fog.

The Astorian employs 21 people and the pay roll for the month of March was $1,225, all of which was paid out to merchants in Astoria. This is $14,700 a year. The Astorian believes in reciprocity—patronize those that patronize you.

A telephone message was received from Mr. Murphy, clerk of the supreme court yesterday, stating that the court did not decide the Clatsop county court house case yesterday. It is not known when it will be decided, but possibly may be today.

There is a restaurant in town which makes a specialty of serving fine meals, where prompt and good service can always be relied upon. This is the California Restaurant, which has just opened under new management, and is well worth visiting.

Rev. Herbert H. Brown tendered his resignation Sunday morning as pastor of that church and the same has been accepted. Rev. Brown and wife will leave this week for Grants Pass, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of that place.

A new lot of Australian lump coal just received. There is no fuel so convenient, satisfactory and economical as first class coal. Australian coal burns freely with little ash and no clinkers. You can have it sacked or in lumps. Free delivery. Ring up phone 1961. ELMORE & CO.

A large crowd was at the wharf yesterday when the United States transport Bufford arrived from Portland. She left Portland Saturday, but owing to the low water in the river made very slow time. She tied up at Brookfield Sunday night and arrived at Astoria at 12 o'clock, noon, yesterday. It will be noticed that there is a painful silence in the big tower in Portland as to the time it took the Bufford to come down the river, the only papers on the coast that published the fact being the Seattle and Tacoma papers. Fifty-one hours coming 100 miles is not very swift traveling.

William A. Hamlin of this city died at Tacoma Sunday of appendicitis. The remains arrived in Astoria last evening and the funeral will occur today under the auspices of Cushing post, G. A. R., of which deceased was a member. He came to Astoria about a year ago where he engaged in business. He leaves a wife, one son and one daughter.

A remonstrance has been filed in the office of the city auditor by the Peninsula Land & Trust Co., and the heirs of the Taylor estate against the improvement of Taylor avenue. This is the improvement contemplated by the common council around Smith's point, and which the county has asked the council to make in order to connect with the Young's bay bridge.

Articles of incorporation of the Lynn Packing Company were filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday. The incorporators are F. A. Fisher, G. O. Moon and Otto Carlson. The capital stock is $50,000 divided into 500 shares of the par value of $100 each. The object of the corporation is to pack, can and pickle salmon in Alaska, Washington and Oregon. The office and principal place of business will be at Astoria.

Charles Larsen's clothing store was broken into Sunday morning and a quantity of clothing stolen. The matter was reported to the police and yesterday morning Chief Hallock arrested Andrew Carlson as the thief and found a large quantity of the stolen property in his possession. He broke into the store by breaking a piece out of the door window and unlocking the door. It is the same method employed in the other burglaries reported, and it is thought he is the man who has been doing all the jobs. He will be given a preliminary hearing today.

Old Landmark.

About 20 years ago Captain Hustler erected a flag pole at the southwest corner of his office at the foot of Ninth street. It was 102 feet high, and on the top of it was a model of the old bar tug Astoria. The event was celebrated with great elan by some of the old timers, among whom were Capt. Hustler, Capt. Wass, Pilots Campbell, Mathews, Woods, Howes, Johnson, John Fox, Wm. A. Johnston and a number of others. A new flag was purchased and floated on the breeze on every important occasion, and was the signal of the arrival of the ocean steamers from San Francisco. Yesterday forenoon, the flag pole was cut down and thrown overboard, and another land mark of Astoria is gone.
